Community Partnerships

The Pebble Partnership and Anglo American have teamed up to support local favorite recreation area, Kincaid Park. Anglo American has provided a $100,000 donation to the Kincaid Project Group.

The donation, part of a volunteer effort to enhance the existing area and expand recreational facilities at Kincaid, has helped to build seven new soccer fields at the park.

Caring Neighbors

The Pebble Partnership sponsored a satellite event in Iliamna, as part of the 2010 Alaska Run for Women. More than 55 local residents participated in the Iliamna event, held simultaneously to the Anchorage race June 12, which drew more than 7,100 participants.

The Alaska Run for Women promotes breast cancer awareness programs and raises funds for research in the fight against breast cancer.

The Southwest Alaska satellite event, which included information about mammograms and early detection provided by Iliamna healthcare providers, was held in honor of a local resident who recently passes away from breast cancer.
